As direct owner of the account(s) referenced above, you have the right to receive a paper or electronic statement sent to you. You understand by signing this form you will no longer receive your account statements (paper) via U.S. Postal mail.

You must have Adobe Acrobat Reader installed on your computer to view your e-mail statements. (This can be downloaded for free on The Peoples Bank website, www.yourhometownbankonline.com or www.tpbbancorp.com.)

The statement information you receive via e-mail will be password-protected for your security. The security of your password is your responsibility and anyone who has access to the password will be able to view your e-mail statement. You agree to notify The Peoples Bank immediately if the password should become compromised or known to individuals who are not authorized.

Create a password: _____
Must be at least 4 characters (may contain letters or numbers)

If you change your e-mail address, you agree to notify The Peoples Bank in writing of your new e-mail address. (The Peoples Bank, Attn: Bookkeeping, 100 N. Main St., Brownstown, IN 47220) If your statement is returned to The Peoples Bank due to an incorrect e-mail address, we will send your statement via U.S. Postal mail until you notify us of your new e-mail address.

This enrollment request applies to your checking and/or savings account statements only, no other documentation will be sent via e-mail. You may request, for a fee, a paper copy of your statement. Please contact our bookkeeping department to request a paper copy.

This request for e-mail statements shall remain in full force until revoked in writing. To revoke your consent for receiving your statement via e-mail, you will need to complete a revocation of consent form. This form will be available at all of our branches. If you have any questions, please call the bookkeeping department at 812-358-4000.
